Consider Jesus

A slogan or catch phrase is a small set of words that is used to make a product stick in your mind. It creates a bond between the product and you. A good slogan entices you to buy the item and makes you feel that you cannot live without it. I am sure you are familiar with these slogans and the companies they represent: "Eat fresh" (Subway), "Just Do It" (Nike), "Got Milk?" (California Milk Producers), and "We Deliver" (USPS). These are great catch phrases because you remember them.

Do you have a special catch phrase to help you remember how much Jesus loves you? Is there a certain set of words that stick in your mind when you think about Jesus? Do you need a spiritual slogan to remind you that you cannot live without Him? Consider Jesus, a phrase taken from Hebrews 3:1, Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in the heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, as those words that create a special bond between you and our Lord.

Consider Jesus: What He has done for you

Jesus came to earth to be among His people. (John 1:14, And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.) He left the glory of heaven to be born of a virgin mother. (Isaiah 7:14, Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.) He willingly took your sins upon Himself. (John 8:24, I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he, you will die in your sins.) He suffered through torment and physical pain. (Isaiah 53:4, Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.) He was nailed to a cross and crucified between two criminals. (John 19:18, There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them.) He was abandoned by his Father because he was covered with your sins. (Mark 15:34, And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" Which means, "My God, My God, why have you forsaken me?")

He rose from the dead and gave you the victory over death. (1 Corinthians 15:56-57, The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.) He commanded his disciples to take His Words into the world so that you may hear, believe and live. (Matthew 28:19, Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.)

Consider Jesus: What He does for you daily

Jesus is your connection to God the Father. (John 14:6, Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.") He provides you with his light to conquer the darkness of this world. (John 8:12, Again, Jesus spoke to them, saying. "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.") He makes you part of the body of Christ, without division or distinction. (Galatians 3:28, There is neither Jew or Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male or female, for you are one in Christ Jesus.)

Growing and Fulfilling

Paul writes to "Pastor" Timothy, "As for you...do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry" (2 Timothy 4:5).

About a year ago, when I was on the ballot for Jr. Pastoral Counselor, some members at Bethlehem expressed their concern that this duty might take me away from the congregation to the point that it would hinder my work as pastor. Before I could even respond, former LWML Ohio District President, Ida Luebke, reassured them, "Not at all! If anything, this will add to his ministry."

So far, I'd have to agree with President Luebke. You have been a wonderful blessing to me and the congregations I serve. Thanks in part to serving in the LWML, I have improved in giving timely reports and articles, leading Bible study, knowing when to speak (and when not to speak) in meetings, how to work in a group setting, and how to lead meetings. Even as a "slightly seasoned" pastor of 9+ years, I have improved my skills as a leader from the "Tips for Leading with Confidence" (lwml.org/developing-leaders). The Mite Box is now an established part of the Witte household and my children also enjoy "Giving to Jesus" with some of their loose change. In the two circuits I have served, LWML has been a regular and strong tie that binds the members of various LCMS congregations together in Christ's love. All for our mutual encouragement, worship, growth in the Word, and mission endeavors in Christ's name.

This is just a short list of some of those blessings I've already received and shared. And as I continue to learn more about the wealth of resources available through the LWML website and continue to serve alongside the Lutheran Women in Mission, there'll be more blessings for sure. Thanks be to God as you help your pastors do the work of an evangelist and fulfill their ministry—including me.

God bless and keep you,

Pastor Keith Witte, Jr. Pastoral Counselor

He is your mediator, your advocate before God. (1 Timothy 2:5, For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.) He provides for all your needs. (Philippines 4:19, And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.) He gives you peace that surpasses all understanding. (John 14:27a, Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you.) He takes away your fears and anxieties and answers your prayers. (Philippians 4:6, do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.) He offers you rest from your burdens and cares. (Matthew 11:28, Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.) He surrounds you with love. (1 John 4:19, We love because he first loved us.) He forgives your sins. (Matthew 9:6, But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins - he then said to the paralytic - "Rise, pick up your bed and go home.")

Consider Jesus: What He will do for you for eternity

He is your hope for the future. (Titus 2:13, ...waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ.) He prepares a special place for you to be with Him. (John 14:2-3, In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.) He offers you His constant presence that never changes. (Hebrews 13:8, Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.) He will wipe away your tears and remove your sorrow and pain. (Revelation 21:4, He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.) He will give you eternal life with Him. (Romans 6:23, For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.)

As you realize all that Jesus Christ has done for you, continues to do for you, and will do for you throughout eternity, you begin to understand that Jesus is everything you desire. All your needs -comfort, forgiveness, love and peace- are fulfilled by Jesus. He is your Brother, your Friend, your Savior and your Lord. May you

Consider Jesus as you begin and end each day.

Mission Grant Update

Center of Refuge Orphanage – Jacmel, Haiti

After the wonderful women of the LWML Ohio District vote to fund a mission project and faithfully donate those mites, it is pleasing to receive an update on how the monies are being used and see the faces of those who are benefitting. I reached out to Jackie Rychel from Ministry in Mission and asked her to provide us with some information on the Center of Refuge Orphanage, Jacmel Haiti, and how the meal program is coming along. The 2018-2020 Mission Grant for this organization is $12,000 – to be used to subsidize the feeding of the children at the orphanage.

The cost to feed the 35 children and helpers is more than $2000 per month. The LWML Ohio District grant provides $500 per month to cover some of those expenses. The cost per child is roughly $3000 each year. The children at the orphanage are attending school, have a safe place to live, receive at least two meals each day and have a bed to call their own.

Since the inception of the Center of Refuge Orphanage after the earthquake in 2010, many children have experienced a better life. Ministry in Mission built a dwelling in 2015 and in the last 4 years, 12 children over 18 have aged out and are able to live on their own. Social services approve of the good care the children are receiving at the orphanage, and they continue to bring children who are left without parents.

Jackie shares that Ministry in Mission is honored to be a safe haven for these children, and that they could never do it without the support of the LWML.

At the time of this writing, $8000 has been paid on this grant. Please continue to pray for this mission!

I can do all things through Him that strengthens me. Nevertheless, you have done well to share with me in my affliction (Philippians 4:13-14.)

Hidden Treasures

Recently, while searching for old zone bylaws, I found a small worn red book tucked alongside more important looking files. Remember the saying, "Never judge a book by its cover". What a find! It is a handwritten account of the organizational meeting of our zone and minutes for the first nine years of zone rallies. I found out Napoleon Zone was organized in September of 1944 and the first rally was in October 1944.

The importance of finding this little book was not only learning about the early history of our zone but as a member of the Structure Committee I have learned when amending zone bylaws it is important to list the year of organization and the years the bylaws were amended. Few of the bylaws we have on file list these important dates. Take time to look through the boxes of your zone files. You might find such a treasure as we did. We found the original bylaws of 1944 and the amended bylaws of 1954. Now we need to keep searching for the ones since then.

Deborah Wesche, Structure Committee

Who Do You Trust?

Appointing representatives you trust to settle the estate, care for minor children and/or manage trusts, becomes the most significant decisions made with an effective last will and testament.

Prayerful, thoughtful selection reflects your life of faith. To learn more about Gifts of Love, contact:

Reach Out, Touch Someone

I think about being part of the Christian Life Committee and what that means to me. Making friends and developing friendships is nice, but some of the other things we do are more important.

Working together to reach others with the mission grants that we select and fund is exciting. Helping to do God's work is also fulfilling.

There is always more work to be done. There are many hurting people that we can connect with and support. We can also reach out to the unchurched to share the gospel. Meet someone where their needs are. Pray with them or for them. Plant the seed so it can grow with the help of the Holy Spirit.

It's a big world out there and there are many opportunities to share God's love and the good news. The message is simple, but powerful. We need to make sure we are not hiding our light under a basket, but letting it shine for everyone to see.

We can make a difference. With God's love and guidance, anything is possible!

Janet Pauley, Christian Life Committee

Thinking vs. Promises

An unknown author made a list which he called "Our Thinking vs. God's Promises". One item is this:

We think "I can't do it". God says, "You can do all things" (Philippians 4:13).

I started thinking that this is not the only place in Scripture that gives us an answer. So, I searched and here are some more. GOD SAYS:

Fear not for I am with you (Isaiah 41:10).

Cast all your cares upon Him (I Peter 5:7).

An anxious heart weighs a man down, but a kind word cheers him up (Proverbs 12:25).

What is impossible with men is possible with God (Luke 18:27).

Everything is possible for him who believes (Mark 9:23).

Then you will call and the Lord will answer (Isaiah 58:9).

Ask and it will be given to you (Matthew 7:7).

I will be with him in trouble (Psalm 91:15).

For I know the plans I have for you, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future (Jeremiah 29:11).

Ask and you will receive and your joy will be complete (John 16:24).

Judy Stroeh, Human Care Committee

Engaging Young Women

Something that I get asked a lot as a young woman involved in LWML is "How do we get more young women involved?" My response is another question, "How did you get involved in LWML?" Odds are, someone asked to you join them at a meeting or event. Maybe it was a relative, maybe it was a random church lady. The point is, someone asked you to join and you now have a relationship with that person.

The first step in any relationship is to introduce yourselves, so by inviting new faces to LWML you are starting that process. Then you need to nurture that relationship by checking in on them or continuing to invite them to meetings. A simple way to show you care is to ask, "How can I pray for you?" This question is such a meaningful question that can open the door for deep discussion or at the very least let them know you care about them and so does God.

In addition to personally inviting women to join your group, you may want to consider some of the ideas below:

- ♥ Organize a hobby sharing night (or a series)
- ♥ Technology help night
- ♥ How to crochet, scrapbooking, quilting, etc. night
- ♥ Painting, cooking, sewing buttons, mending night
- ♥ Start a secret sister program
- ♥ Have monthly, quarterly, or yearly prayer partners
- ♥ Offer babysitting

For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them (Matthew 18:20 NIV).

Lisa Rhonemus, Leadership Development

LWML Central Zone Winter Retreat

Submitted by Hope Boring

Thirty-five ladies, two men, and two children enjoyed a pretty snowy day at Battelle Darby Creek-Cedar Ridge Lodge on Saturday, January 26, 2019.

We learned how to have a Mary calming heart versus a Martha busy Spirit. Pastor Zoebel's devotion focused on a painting of two children sitting in the grass. He explained how we can be more of "being with Jesus" versus "always being busy and constantly on the go." His Bible Study focused on Luke 10:38-42.

The Christian Life Committee provided a funny skit from the LWML website on Spiritual Makeover with Marcia Makeover and many makeup products!

Before lunch, Diana Schnack, Leader Development Chairman, led a discussion on the characteristics of a follower, a manager, and a leader.

We enjoyed awesome food from the ladies of St. John's Dublin. Then we heard from our guest missionary family from Egypt, Josef and Heba and their two boys from POBLO International. Joseph and Hebe shared about their culture, religion and how they are adjusting to life in the United States. Our ingathering was food items and cards for the missionary family. A "Gifts of Love" presentation was given by Beth Marth.

Napoleon Zone

The spring rally was held on April 6, 2019 at Zion Lutheran Church, Ridgeville Corners. "A Time to Serve" was the theme. Reverend Rockrohr, Zion's Pastor, was the special mission speaker. He shared experiences from their mission work in Africa. He also shared how fast Christianity is growing in most of the countries of Africa. A blessing he mentioned is how African Christians are taking responsibility for their own mission work. They are excited to spread the news about Jesus with their countrymen and women. They are standing up for their Christian beliefs and aligning themselves with the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod. Of the artwork shared is this picture of the Last Supper. To represent unity among the family of God, the artist has each person at the table wearing the distinctive robes of his tribe.

Toledo Zone Retreat

Submitted by Lillian Keller

On a sunny March day, the women of the LWML Toledo Zone met for their annual retreat in the beautiful chapel at Ohio Living Swan Creek, Toledo, Ohio. The Rev. Ryan Kleimola, Pastor at Trinity Lutheran Church, Toledo and LWML Toledo Zone Counselor, led the opening devotion. He chose verses from Psalm 119, Isaiah 66, and Hebrews 12 for the opening devotion and spoke of a life of faith and how we are comforted to know that God is with us, even as a mother comforts her child.

President Jeanne, Elaine, Janice Breitner

President Jeanne Schimmelmenn shared upcoming LWML events. There was singing, an ingathering of mites for missions and financial donations for LCMS World Relief and Human Care to aid with disaster relief. We closed with the League Pledge and a devotion led by Toledo Zone's Vice President, Becky Brown. Thank you to Thrivent Financial for helping with funding.

The theme of the retreat was Walk by Faith, not by Sight, based on 2 Corinthians 5:7. Our retreat leader was Elaine Bickel, a child of God, a teacher, author, inspirational speaker, and humorist. Elaine shared some life experiences and spoke of faith in the midst of a jungle. Elaine reminded us that our Father takes us into His arms and gave us His Son.

President Jeanne Schimmelmenn shared upcoming LWML events. There was singing, an ingathering of mites for missions and financial donations for LCMS World Relief and Human Care to aid with disaster relief. We closed with the League Pledge and a devotion led by Toledo Zone's Vice President, Becky Brown. Thank you to Thrivent Financial for helping with funding.

We met at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Cuyahoga Falls. Our theme was His Story, Our Story, based on Acts 28:31 – proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance.

After registration and a continental breakfast, Pastor Hanchett carried the theme through our worship service. Mrs. Hanchett provided accompaniment on the guitar. We built bird houses for Habitat for Humanity for our human care project.

We collected mites during our worship service. Our ingathering was socks and underwear for a mission trip to El Salvador that Redeemer will be taking later this year. One of our members shared that specific socks we collected are school uniform approved which will allow the children to attend school. Susan Weiss taught the ladies a special song in Spanish that is taught in the orphanage to the children by the missionaries.

The ladies of Redeemer fixed a wonderful lunch and we held the election of officers and welcomed Jackie Suchy as Secretary. During this time we brainstormed on ideas for needs of communities where we can help. Doreen Inglis mentioned Sleep in Heavenly Peace, a local bunk bed building project to help provide beds to children in need. We hope to have a service day to help build the bunk beds and also make bedding. After the installation of officers, we closed with prayers.

Central Zone

Submitted by Diana Schnack

In early March I had the opportunity to be an interest session speaker at the Ohio District Junior High Youth Gathering in Columbus, Ohio. My topic was Strength of Leadership. I would like to share two observations.

To immediately catch the attention of the youth, I had a volunteer lead the group in a game of Follow the Leader. Worked well. Next, an additional volunteer was asked to lead the group. What followed was exactly as I had hoped: Mass confusion! Who do I follow? What do I do?

After everyone settled down, we talked about what happened, concluding that there can only be one leader; when there are two leaders, followers are not sure what to do. Matthew 6:24 says, No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. Fortunately, we did not get to the 'hate' or 'despise' level.

The other observation was that when the youth were told to break into groups of three and build something with provided materials, all worked well except for one group. Each youth in that group built their own "something". Three leaders emerged and subsequently the assigned task was not completed.

In organizations, whether secular or Christian, leaders are needed. Unnecessary challenges arise when more than one person emerges as the leader. We, as LWML sisters in Christ, know that Jesus is our leader and we devote ourselves to Him and His work. It takes many purpled-donned ladies following our LWML leaders to complete the mission. Let us continue to recognize, respect, and follow our leaders for without their guidance, we followers might get lost.

Cincinnati Zone

Submitted by Diane Rhonemus

Eighteen ladies met January 26th at St Mark's Lutheran Church, Milford, Ohio, for this event titled "Precious Baby Hearts Project." After breakfast, Diane Rhonemus, talked about the baby angel gowns and baby wraps ladies from St. Mark's are making from donated wedding gowns. The gowns are being distributed to Bethesda Anderson and Clinton Memorial Hospitals, with planning underway to donate to more hospitals.

A card is included with each gown so the parents of these precious babies know that someone cares about them during this time of profound grief. At this event the ladies completed 50 hearts (with bows, crosses and angels hand sewn on the hearts) which will also be included with the gowns and wraps.

President Nicole Dowdell, Immanuel Lutheran (Cincinnati) led a leadership experience and everyone attending learned something new about leadership, as the theme was "Change is Hard; you go first." Nicole updated the plans for the April 28 Missions in Motion, the new name for the Spring Rally. Pastoral Counselor Pastor Greene, Immanuel Lutheran (Cincinnati), led devotions.
