My LWML Quilt

Recently, I was looking at a quilt my mom had made years ago. She used squares cut from remnants of material used to create the many pieces of clothing she had sewn for her family. Looking at the quilt and the various squares brought memories to my mind. Some good and some not so good, but in the end – what I held in my hands was a thing of beauty crafted with love.

I wonder what my LWML quilt would look like. I know it had its first stitch when the Pastor at West Point, Nebraska told the new K-1 teacher, "You WILL be a member of the LWML". I had never even heard of the LWML, but a member I became. In those early years I was mentored by Mae, Gwen and Carla. They certainly would be part of my LWML quilt as would recent mentors like Doris and Char. Some of the squares would make me smile – the excitement of national and district conventions, the Christian fellowship of zone events, the growth through Quarterly Bible Studies with my Sisters in Christ at my church, servant events, mites, mission and more.

Some of the squares would make me shake my head – "How did I EVER get through that? – So many responsibilities at national, district, zone and local levels!" Yet, get through them I did! Some of the squares would make me sad as I recall the mistakes I made in my role of follower or leader. Certainly not very pretty at the time. Yet all those fears and shortcomings, along with the mountain top experiences, would be right there on my LWML quilt – stitched together by the Master Quilter! Beautiful because it is being crafted with love. By God's grace my LWML quilt will continue to grow in the years ahead as God provides the opportunity to serve Him and others with gladness.

I hope you have an LWML quilt in the making. I pray that you are using your talents. YES, you DO have talents - "As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace." (1 Timothy 4:10 ESV) As you serve others be assured you are also serving the One who promises to bless the work you do in His name. "And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work." (2 Corinthians 9:8 NIV).

May God bless you as He grows your LWML quilt,

Billie

Northeast Zone Spring Rally Our Savior - Mayfield Heights Saturday, April 26, 2025 10:00am "Faith, Not Sight" 2nd Corinthians 5:7

A brief business meeting will be held and include a devotion, election for the zone offices of Secretary and Vice President, and other zone information. Our guest speaker for the Rally is from the Lutheran Braille Workers.

Lutheran Braille Workers (LBW) is committed to helping men, women, and children who are Blind or Visually Impaired know the love of Christ for themselves.

We will learn more about how LBW produces approximately 150,000 volumes a year. Braille, Specialized Large Print, and Audio publications are available free of charge through the dedication of thousands of volunteers in over 115 Ministry Production Centers throughout the United States.

LBW currently has two Ministry Outreach Centers in Toledo and Columbus Ohio. There are also two production centers in Fairlawn and Cincinnati, Ohio.

An offering of donations for this ministry will be taken at the Rally. This will be an informative and interesting presentation about this much needed ministry. One testimonial received by LBW reads: "You're sharing God's love with a lot of people who don't feel loved, in a place where none of us could afford to buy these materials on our own. You're the only ones doing this work. Thank you for what you're doing. It means a lot to me, and it means a lot to every Blind person I talk to and give a book of the Bible to. Thank you all!"

NEWS and HELP NEEDED

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying: 'Whom shall I send? Who will go for Us?' And I said:

'Here am I. Send me!'

Isaiah 6:8

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

The LWML Ohio District Convention is being held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Westlake, Ohio, scheduled for the dates of June 19-20, 2026! The Theme is "REJOICE ALWAYS" based on 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18, Rejoice always. Pray Continually. Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

The women in our Northeast Zone, along with the ladies in the Cleveland South-West and the Lorain-Medina Zones will be working together as the Host Committee (HC). Volunteers are needed to accomplish the "behind the scene" physical tasks and responsibilities for before and after the convention. This is our opportunity to serve on the HC.

The following descriptions for the positions needed to be filled are summaries only. Full job descriptions with duties will be provided upon request:

Exhibits Chairman – Sends a written invitation to all district standing committee chairmen and other approved organizations in January of the convention year offering space for exhibits. With the District President and HC Chairman/Co-Chairman, determines the location in the Church for exhibits and number of tables to be available to be used. Submits a proposed exhibitor registration form to the HC for approval.

Music Chairman - Selects the music for the convention, including songs to be printed in the convention manual. Obtains music copyright permission as needed. Public Domain songs are preferred. Can serve as the choir director or with the choir director. Arranges for the choir practice prior to the opening worship service.

If you have any questions or are interested in learning more about the open positions, please contact either Ann Marie Bollas (ambollas47@gmail.com), serving as the Co-Host of the Convention Committee or Zone President Billie Lelle (blelle@roadrunner.com).

Please note also that if there is someone with whom you would like to work with you as a co-chairman, please know that is an option. Also, you may serve as a committee member if you do not want to serve as a chairman. Just let us know!

Please pray for guidance as you consider the information about these positions that are needed to be filled. May the Lord grant you encouragement and enthusiasm for this convention so we can, together, serve the Lord with Gladness!

Highlighting Past Events

❖ St. Mark's - Chesterland:

With the help of several volunteers, we were able to transport our Operation Christmas Child boxes to the Greater CLE East area collection point, Friends Church in Willoughby Hills. This year we collected more than 300 fun, filled, and personalized shoeboxes. This is the most that our congregation has ever collected and is a double-digit increase from our 2023 emphasis. Every box represents a Gospel opportunity. Please continue to pray that the children who receive boxes packed by our congregation will be delighted by the contents and that the Holy Spirit will grant them faith when they hear about the "Greatest Gift" - Jesus!

❖ Grace Lutheran - Thompson:

Held a cookie sale over the holidays raising an astounding $400 for LWML Mites! Mariann VanPelt's granddaughter sold her "Storm Setter" company's shirts and sweatshirts designed with Bible verses as well as handmade Christmas ornaments. Way to go!

❖ Fall Retreat 2024 - Jordan Creek:

The LWML Northeast Zone's 31st Fall Retreat, "God's Gift of REST", was held at Jordan Creek Park in Concord on Saturday, September 28th. 51 zone members, representing 11 of our groups were present. The keynote speaker, Reverend Steve Hackmann from Shore Haven Lutheran in Euclid, guided us through a session entitled "Sabbath, a Time of Rest".

Our Ingathering offering was dedicated by Jeanne Schimmelmenn for the charity, "Sleep in Heavenly Peace" collecting $1,427.00 in donations. Jeanne reminded us of the importance of how to REST with God; Relax-Enjoy-Seek the Lord-and Trust in Him. $562.28 in Mites were gathered and will be given in memory of John "Jack" Schimmelmenn to support the mission work of the LWML Ohio District. With songs, games and skits the day was filled with fellowship and good food. After a delicious and filling lunch, we broke into smaller groups. Diane Wayner assisted some in making 28 winter scarves that will be donated to Painesville Salvation Army; a R.E.S.T.ful walk through the park was led by Billie Lelle and laughs were had in the Bible Trivia game led by Ruth Mowery.

Pastor Steven Berndt led our devotion in the morning and bible study in the afternoon. His message expanded on the theme verse from Exodus 33:14: The LORD replied, "My Presence will go with you and I will give you rest."

Northeast Zone Nominations Needed:

Sue Matzke has faithfully served our zone as Secretary for the past four years. Her term ends in 2025. We will be electing her successor at the April 26th Spring rally.

The primary responsibility of the secretary is to (Adapted from the zone bylaws):

- a. record the proceedings of the rallies and the meetings of the Executive Board; (1 Rally, 2 Board meetings/year)
- b. provide copies of the minutes of the rallies and meetings
- c. notify Zone groups and pastors of Zone functions as directed by the president

Term of office is two years, but illegible to serve a second term.

Has God gifted you (or someone you know) to serve in this capacity? Prayerfully consider this question and the opportunity it offers. Nominations can be given to any zone officer.

The new LWML mite boxes which are now being distributed by LWML have a QR code. Scanning this code sends donations directly to the national LWML organization. If you wish to make a donation to national, then use the code but remember It DOES NOT separate any mites back to the district. When you give mites to the LWML Ohio District, 25% goes to national and 75% stays in our district. You are already supporting national LWML through the mites that you send to our district financial treasurer using the mite remittance form. If you want to make a direct donation from your checking account to the LWML Ohio District, use the donate button at <https://www.lwmlohio.org/>
